You capitalize school subjects

CC0-BY/greymatters/pixabay Your child’s education is one of the greatest investments you will ever make. Choosing the right school will help your child through their high school years, but how do you choose the ‘right’ school? There are so many things to consider, and it seems wherever you look you will find someone claiming to be the ‘best’. There are multiple lists published every year ranking schools on a wide range of criteria, including academic or sporting performance, college acceptance rates, student satisfaction and teacher/student ratio. So which list is right and how do you decide the best school for your child? Several of these lists have been compared and below you will find the public high schools which feature consistently across them all. Sometimes I see “Math” ; “Physics” in the middle of a sentence, and sometimes lower case is used. I In addition to the first word in a sentence, the following are generally the only words which should be capitalized. Proper nouns—a specific individual name: Kalamazoo. Proper adjectives—an adjective derived from a proper noun: Romance languages (derived from the proper noun Roman). Common nouns only when used as part of a specific name: Kanley Chapel, Waldo Library (otherwise lowercase chapel, library). Common adjectives only when used as part of a specific name: Brown and Gold Room (otherwise lowercase brown and gold). University exceptions The following are the only common nouns which should be capitalized in publications and correspondence of Western Michigan University. Alumni Association—Capitalize only when it refers to the WMU Alumni Association. Board of Trustees—Capitalize only when it refers to the WMU Board of Trustees. University—Capitalize only when it refers exclusively to Western Michigan University. Titles Used in text —In text, titles are capitalized only if they precede the name of the individual. A title following the name of an individual or a title by itself is not capitalized. Capitalize: ...President Edward Montgomery spoke at the... Do not capitalize: ...Edward Montgomery, president, spoke at the... The president spoke at the... In text, it is preferable for the title to follow the name and, therefore, the title would not be capitalized. This is especially true of titles consisting of more than one word. For example, it is acceptable to use either "President Edward Montgomery" or "Edward Montgomery, president." However, "John Doe, director of alumni services," should be used in text rather than "Director of Alumni Services John Doe." Some words identifying occupations or professions are pseudo titles and should not be capitalized even if they precede the name. Do not capitalize "attorney Jane Doe" or "pianist John Doe." Titles are not capitalized when used in conjunction with the name of an office, department or program. Do not capitalize the title in "Jane Doe, dean of the College of Fine Arts" or "Jane Doe, College of Fine Arts dean." Used in a list—When used in a directory listing or other similar situations, the title is capitalized whether it precedes the name, follows the name, or appears in tabular form. Used in an address—When used as part of an address, the title is capitalized, whether it appears in text or block address form. See addresses. Examples: For more information, contact John Doe, Director of Alumni Relations, Western Michigan University, 1903 W Michigan Ave, Kalamazoo MI 49008-5404 USA.
